This is excellent. JazakAllah khair. Something that came at the perfect time. I agree with the part about intentions. I have been struggling with this issue for so long and it doesn’t help that I generally have an easy going personality so I seem to be always getting in wrong when it came to gender interactions.

Gender equality is not only a social and moral imperative, but also an economic necessity. Across the world, countries are losing $160 trillion in wealth because of differences in lifetime earnings between women and men, according to a recent World Bank Group study. Companies, however, are increasingly realizing that they can gain greater competitive advantage and improve profits by targeting ...

The Council of Europe celebrates its 70th anniversary - and quietly prepares to sacrifice its youth sector. The Council of Europe is the smaller, older, and poorer of the two European supranational institutions, and is often confused with the Council of its much larger sister organisation, the European Union. In the youth sector, however, nobody makes that mistake: The two European Youth ...
