Science Askew A Light Hearted
The buttered cat paradox is a common joke based on the tongue-in-cheek combination of two adages: . Cats always land on their feet.; Buttered toast always lands buttered side down.; The paradox arises when one considers what would happen if one attached a piece of buttered toast (butter side up) to the back of a cat, then dropped the cat from a large height.

The Liturgy begins with the asperges, or purificatory ceremony. Asperges is simply the Latin for the opening words of the antiphon "Thou shalt sprinkle," for it is constantly the custom in the Church to use the first word or words of a psalm or canticle as its name.. The procession having already stirred up the people and assisted them to become united in thought and feeling, the celebrant by ...
